

AUSTRALIAN ASTRONOMICAL OBSERVATORY HONOURS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The Australian Astronomical Observatory (AAO) is offering an Honours scholarship for students undertaking astronomy and/or instrumentation projects who are substantially co-supervised by an AAO staff member. Scholarships will be awarded on academic merit and have a value of $5000. The awarded scholarships will become available once Honours enrolment at an Australian university has taken place. Full terms & conditions and more details of AAO supervisors and projects are available on the AAO web pages at <http://www.aao.gov.au/students/studentsgrad.html>

Applications, consisting of this form along with a scanned academic transcript, must be emailed by the application due date of 15 March annually to the AAO Head of Research and Outreach: A.Prof. Andrew Hopkins, Australian Astronomical Observatory, email: ahopkins@aao.gov.au, ph: +61 2 9372 4849. You may also include a short CV.
Please arrange for your two letters of reference to be received by the same due date.
